The TYR Tactical® Intermediate Lower Back Medical Pouch provides a cutaway style pouch with retention cord and easy one-handed operation. Fits horizontally on either a belt or carrier.

- It is engineered utilizing our revolutionary patented PV® material which offers significant weight reduction with increased resistance to abrasion. PV® has been tested to have 7-10 times higher abrasion resistance than standard mil spec nylon.

- MultiCam® PV® simultaneously enhances the overall abrasion resistance, while integrating the added benefit of fire resistance capabilities.
