

JOB DESCRIPTION

Title: Hard Armor Technician

Rate: $14.00/hr-$15.00/hr

Summary of Position:

- Hard Armor Technician is responsible for using patterns and cutting out pieces of hard and soft fabric to be used in production.

Experience using band saw, table saw, jig saw, and various shop cutting tools a PLUS

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Responsible for hard armor and shield assembly
- Understand and interpret work instructions, and other instructions written or verbal, to complete assembly of armor goods according to established guidelines and quality standards.
- Responsible for spreading, marking and cutting fabric material.
- Verify that batches have been transferred on correct fabric.
- Working knowledge of fabrics, linings, etc. with the ability to contribute to identifying potential fabric problems.
- Organized and can prioritize cutting according to needs of production team.
- Good knowledge of the usage of various cutting tools
- Experienced in working with different raw materials: soft fabrics, hard plastics.
- Required to stand for 8-12 hours while operating hand cutter.
- Safely and efficiently handle and move raw materials weighing up to 60lbs to designated areas

Qualifications:

- Ability to listen, learn and communicate with supervisor and coworkers.
- Organize and can prioritize cutting according to needs of production team.
- Ability to take direction and come back with solid results/solutions.
- Ability to manage daily tasks and meet time-lines.
- Ability to focus on results.
- Ability to adapt quickly to changes or restructure of priorities.

Physical Demands:

- Requires standing for extended periods of time.
- Requires frequent walking, bending, reaching above shoulder level, and balancing.
- Requires occasional climbing, stooping, kneeling, squatting, crouching, or crawling.
- Requires occasional lifting, push, pulling and carrying weight up to 50 pounds.
- Requires eye-hand coordination and manual dexterity.

